INTERNATIONAL MILITARY SPORTS COUNCIL CISM PARACHUTING COMMITTEE

SUMMARY ACTIVITY 2010 REPORT

The 35th World Military Parachuting Championship was held by Switzerland in the city of Buochs, near Lucern from 15th to 24th July 2010. The armed forces have used whatever means they need to organize a perfect competition. Parachutists from 37 nations have been delivered with precision in time, altitude at the correct spot by six “Pilatus Porter”. Due to bad weather during more than one day, it was not possible to finish all rounds that were scheduled in accuracy and formation skydiving. More than 2500 jumps were made without any protest formulated to the Technical Jury or the Jury of Appeal.

Participating countries : Algeria- Austria- Belgium- Belarus- Brazil- Bahrain- China- Colombia-Cyprus- Czech Republic- Denmark- France- Germany- Hungary- India- Italy- Ireland- Jordan- Kazakhstan- Latvia- Lithuania- Morocco- Netherland- Oman- Poland- Qatar-Romania- Slovenia- Serbia- Sri Lanka- Switzerland- Slovakia- Syria- Thailand- Turkey- UAE- USA.

Competitors men 162, women 55 and 35 judges, total 413 invited peoples.

Program : 7 rounds Accuracy, 5 rounds Style and 6 rounds Formation Skydiving. Two CISM records were broken : twice in Formation skydiving (45 by Belgium men and 30 by France women). All the results, photos and videos are on the webpages :

Doping tests are mandatory in all the CISM world championship and also mandatory for the records ratification. The final results of the tests were negative.

Technical Jury : Albert Herbst (Chief judge) from Germany; Jurate Janussauskiene (FS event judge) from Lithuania; Marius Puchala (Accuracy event judge) from Poland and Ulf Roland Tingnert (Style event judge) from Sweden.

Judges : All participating nations have to nominate a qualified judge (FAI or CISM one) on the preliminary entry form three months prior to the competition. The rule “no judge no team” was applied. The judge may be civilian and also come from another country.

One Future CISM World Competition is fixed and officially put on the FAI/IPC calendar.

- 2011 : 5th Military Games and 36th WMPC in RESENDE, Brazil, 12th - 24th July.

Parachuting Specific CISM Rules are available on the CISM website : Some adjustments appear from the previous regulations but the IPC ones remain always reference for practice and judgment.

Judges qualifications : A close cooperation exists with the IPC Judges sub-committee and the updated list of the CISM qualified judges was sent to it. In CISM, the judges have to do an evaluation every two years to be on this list.
